Universe may have begun the process of Disintegration and Renewal

Epoch Times, February 17, 2022

American astrophysicist Paul Sutter published an article on space.com titled the "Vacuum decay", detailing the universe may have begun its process of disintegration and renewal. The disintegration process starts from a certain point in the universe and spreads at the speed of light. Scientists believe new particles are recreated at the same time, this is called the "phase transition".

Gravity, weak and strong nuclear forces and electromagnetism are the four basic forces, in the universe. These forces keep the universe in a "stable" state, and all the matter in this universe were developed and evolved by these forces. After a hundred billions of years, creating the universe we see today.

The stability of forces can be probed through the mass of the Higgs boson field. Higgs boson, keeps the forces from merging into one. Scientists have measured the mass of the Higgs boson to be stable for now, but decays rapidly as things change. The current universe may be stable for another tens of billions of years, but it may also be beginning to experience phase changes.

After this 'update' space will expand in the universe at the speed of light, replacing all the old cosmic space wherever it goes. This universe is not a "real" vacuum, it may suddenly decay and be renewed one day. What would the "new universe" look like? Similar or completely different from the old universe, with completely new other forces and material fields. and matter particles?

Unsolved Mystery of Fatima Prophecy Revealed

Epoch Times 23- 09- 2022

On May 13, 1917, in the small town Fatima, Portugal, a 10-year-old shepherd girl Lucia Santos, her cousin Jacinta Marto and Francie Francisco, they were watching over their sheep in the valley when suddenly the sheep stood still. They saw a beautiful woman appearing in the sky. She was wearing a snow-white dress, and her whole body was shining brightly, brighter than the sun. She held a rosary in her hand, and said to the shepherds, she hopes they will return to this place to see her at the same time on the 13th of each month, until October. She also told the shepherds to recite the prayers of homage to the Virgin Mary every day to pray for peace for themselves and the world.

This occurred during World War I. A confrontation between the “Allied National Front” led by Germany, Austria-Hungary and the Ottoman Empire, and the “Allied forces” of France, Britain, Russia, Italy. Portugal was neutral, but as their economy was affected, it finally joined the Allied forces. When the shepherds told their relatives, what they had seen, they did not believe them.

On June 13, many people went with the shepherds, to see the Virgin. The Virgin appeared again, but people didn't see her. They only saw the children mouth moving, with no sound. Some people did get a strange feeling, and started to believe the shepherds were telling truth. As more people followed, this touched a nerve in the local government.

On August 13, the governor, Artur Santos, thought the event would lead to political unrest, so he imprisoned the shepherds before they reached the valley. He tried to force the shepherds to reveal the secrets of the Virgin to them, but they refused. Meanwhile, on the other side of the valley, about 20,000 people were waiting for the Virgin to appear. They saw light and clouds descending on top of the tree only.

The last appearance of Our Lady was on October 13, when about 70,000 people and the shepherds waited in the valley. Many people described, the sky was covered with dark clouds and it was raining, then suddenly, the clouds cracked and the sun appeared. As the sun spun in the sky, it emitted light of various colours around it. The sun suddenly fell from the sky, rushed towards the ground and then lifted into the sky returning to its original position. The people's clothes that were soaked from the rain miraculously dried. This event is known as the "Sun miracle".

There were many eyewitnesses, even O Século, a newspaper in Portugal, opposed to religious beliefs, published it. The reporter wrote: The crowd, according to the Bible teachings, respectfully wore no hats. They were astonished to see the sun tremble, it looked like it was dancing. The crowd were kneeling and reaching out, weeping, praying, facing the miracle that they were witnessing. They reported that the anomaly of the sun could be seen 40 kilometres away. Most people agree that this is an apparition of the Virgin, there were also sceptics who believe it was an illusion. If this was the case, how did the little shepherds predict this phenomenon?

The Virgin revealed three secrets to them about the world's future. When Lucia grew up to be a nun, the first two secrets were explicitly written in her memoirs. The first prophecy, was a vision of hell, and a boundless sea of fire in which human-shaped demons and spirits were engulfed, screaming and groaning in pain and despair. Fortunately, the Virgin assured the children that they would go to heaven. Lucia needed to live longer on earth, and she will take Jacinta and Lancisco back to heaven first. The two children died of the disease the Spanish flu that broke out in 1919.

The second prophecy Virgin Mary said, World War I will end, but if people still irritate God, there will be more serious wars to follow. Sure enough, World War II broke out during the term of Pope Pius XI. When Germany invaded Poland in 1939. When people see a very rare aurora occurred throughout northern Europe, that the sign would be indicate Gods presence.

The third prophecy. The Virgin instructed this would be revealed in 1960. However, in 1943, Lucia was seriously ill, and Bishop Leiria visited her, to write the third prophecy down, in case she died. Lucia hesitated but finally, delivered the third secret to Leiria in June 1944, and it was not sent to Rome until 1957. In 1960, when everyone expected the Holy Church to release the third secret, it decided not to release it. Because of this decision, a hijacking incident was triggered. On May 2, 1981, Aer Lingus flight 164 from Dublin Airport, Ireland to London Heathrow Airport was hijacked by Australian Laurence James Downey. He wanted to force Rome to reveal the third secret. French forces subdued him and he was sentenced to five years in prison.

Finally, after 83 years, on May 13, 2000, the Holy Church decided to reveal the third secret. The letter wrote - A bishop dressed in white, 'we think he is Holy Father', with other bishops, priests, men and women, climbing a steep mountain, with the great wooden cross. The Holy Father stumbled through a large city, in ruins, tormented by pain and grief, praying for the souls of the corpses he passed by. Upon reaching the top of the mountain, he knelt on the great cross. A group of soldiers shot him and killed him, along with other bishops, priests, men and women. There were two people under the arms of the cross. The angels each had a crystal ladle in their hands, to collect the blood of the martyrs and sprinkle on the souls that go to God.

Rome interpreted the prophecy as the assassination of Pope John Paul II in 1981. Many people thought that the interpretation was too simple. Is there still some content to be disclosed? In 2010, Pope Benedict XVI revealed more in Portugal, when he was visiting there. Our Lady alluded to the future of the Church, that it would suffer until the end of the world.

Prophecy Interpretation

In 1958, Janet Dixon, an American [featured on earlier our program,] God revealed the answer to her while she was praying in with a crystal ball in St. Matthew's Catholic Church. She said : The air around me became pure, a bright light shot down from the dome, and the Virgin was standing in front of me. Wearing a purple-blue robe, a golden and silver halo surrounded the Virgin." "On the top right of her head, I saw a cloud-like word: 'Fatima'. I looked at the Pope's throne, it was empty. On one side of the throne, I saw a pope with blood dripping down his left shoulder. Pieces of the green leaves of wisdom fell one after another, as they fell, the bigger the leaves became. I saw countless hands reaching for the throne, but there was no one on the throne.

The Pope will try to prevent a World War III, calling followers to pray to God to end the great chaos, he will be harmed by it. The supreme head of the Patriarch of Rome will no longer be the Pope. As indicated, by the mysterious light that constantly shining on the throne in Rome. I realized the Pope's power won't remain there forever, and nobody can have the power to be in charge of the church.

On May 13, 1990, Italian Father Gaupi received the revelation of the Virgin. As same as the prophecy said. The Church will experience its worst moments of apostasy. Evil people will infiltrate the interior of the church, and those who truly have the faithful will be subjected to the most severe tests and persecution. Humanity will experience the most severe punishment, thereby purifying the world and preparing people for the coming of the Lord.

Combining these three prophecies, people believe that the Virgin Mary gave a great prophecy of the end days. That is, the decline of religion, the rise of orthodoxy, the global elimination and the final redemption. In fact, God is still God, but the religion that used to be holy and communicated with God has changed. Some churches in the West and some temples in the East are going through the same process of decline. The Pope in the prophecy may symbolize the Messiah, the saviour, who is also the future Buddha Maitreya in the East. In the previous program, we also introduced the relationship between the saviour of the West and the future Buddha Maitreya of the East.

Falun Gong Practitioners Create Powerful Giant Falun and Chinese Characters in Taiwan

Over 5,000 Falun Gong practitioners were gathered at the immense plaza between the National Concert Hall and the National Theater at Taipei's iconic National Chiang Kai-shek Memorial Hall on November 12, 2022.

Donning clothes in pre-arranged colours, they are only a portion of the Falun Gong followers across the nation. They were there to partake in the unique image and character formation commemorating the 30th anniversary of this spiritual discipline's spreading worldwide.

History of Falun Gong Character Formation in China

Over 5,000 Falun Gong practitioners participated in the image and character formation in China in 1998. (Image: via Minghui.org)

Falun Gong image and character formation activities were first held in China's Guizhou Province in 1996 before the spiritual practice was outlawed by the Chinese Communist regime in July 1999. Similar events have been organized outside China one after another since 2000. Among them have been those held in Taiwan, the United States, Indonesia, Australia, and some other countries.

The purpose of the event is to help the general public further understand the true facts about Falun Gong, while also raising awareness about the Communist regime's atrocious persecution of Falun Gong practitioners in China. Over the past 20 years or so, Taiwanese Falun Gong members have organized similar activities annually in Taipei, Taichung, Kaohsiung, Pingtung, and other major cities. The patterns and number of participants have differed each year according to the size of the squares, and the properties of the events.

Falun Gong

Falun Gong, also known as Falun Dafa, is a spiritual practice based on the universal principles of "Truthfulness, Compassion, and Tolerance." This spiritual practice, which is rooted in Buddhist and Taoist philosophies, consists of two main components — self-improvement through studying the teachings and practicing the five sets of exercises. The spiritual practice was first introduced to the public by Mr. Li Hongzhi in China's Changchun City in 1992. Since then, Falun Gong has been taken up by tens of millions of people and is now practiced in over 100 countries around the globe.

The Chinese Communist regime launched an illegal, atrocious campaign to crack down on Falun Gong in 1999 due to this spiritual practice's massive popularity, rapid growth, and outnumbering the CCP membership. Since then, thousands of practitioners have been tortured to death or died from organ harvesting, and tens of thousands of others have been detained without due process in prisons and labor camps.
